Church Unity Octave, a week of prayer for unity among Christians, begins on Sunday, January 18. "That they may become one in your hand" (Ezekiel, 37:17), an ecumenical service has been planned for this Sunday evening at 7pm at St. John Episcopal Church, 4200 S. Atlanta Pl., Tulsa. Parishioners are encouraged to attend and to pray throughout this entire week for the unity of all Christians. This week of prayer concludes with Vespers at Holy Family Cathedral next Sunday January 25 at 7pm. Catholics who participate in the ceremony can receive a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions. All are invited to attend.

As part of the universal Church's worldwide celebration of the 2000 birth of St. Paul, our parish will be celebrating the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on January 25th in place of the 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time. To commemorate the occasion, Bishop Slattery has designated our parish as one of the sacred sites in the diocese where the faithful attending Mass here on January 25th may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions. 1) Must be baptized, not excommunicated, and in the state of grace; 2) may not be attached to sin, not even venial sin; 3) must receive Sacramental Confession and Communion between today and February 1 (in the 2-week period surrounding the feast); 4) must say at least one Our Father and one Hail Mary for the intentions of Pope Benedict XVI. For more information on indulgences, go to www.dioceseoftulsa.org. For this Liturgy on January 25, we welcome Abbot Marcel Rooney to our parish. Abbot Rooney is the director of the Liturgical Institute of the Diocese of Tulsa.

To Madalene Parishioners,
