Fourth Sunday of Easter

We shall be like Christ—so says St. John today. Jesus describes himself as the good shepherd, ready to lay down his life for us. Let us live our lives in him.

Acts 4:8-12 Arrested for an act of kindness, Peter joyfully proclaims the risen Lord.

1 John 3:1-2 John reflects on our present blessings and looks forward to eternal joys.

John 10:11-18 Jesus, the good shepherd, willingly gives his life for the unity of us all.

*For Mother's Day Gifts: Catholic Book & Gift Store located at 31st on Yale will donate 10% of sale during this first full week of May to Madonna House. Your purchases made during this week will automatically designate 10% to go toward helping pregnant women in need.
Please help support the mission of Madonna House. Thank you.*

BIRTHRIGHT OF TULSA MOTHER'S DAY COLLECTION

Birthright of Tulsa has been helping mothers and their unborn babies for more than 30 years. We are a pro-life, non-political international organization dedicated to a healthy mother having a healthy baby. We are non-profit and totally depend on private donations. Each year on Mother's Day we ask for your support to continue our mission to provide hope and practical solutions to pregnant mothers and their unborn babies. With this annual collection we are able to provide all free services which include: pregnancy testing, confidential counsel and support, parenting class, clothing (baby, maternity, diapers), financial assistance, and friendship. Since this is our major source of income for the year, we ask that you prayerfully consider participating in our Mother's Day Collection. Please call Birthright at 481-4884 for additional information.
