*To You, O Lord,
I lift up my soul.*

Today we begin our Advent preparations. May this celebration of Mass touch our hearts and minds so that we may enter the Advent journey filled with God's grace.

Jeremiah 33:14-16 We hear a prophecy that the Lord will fulfill his promise to Israel and Judah by providing a savior through David's line.

1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2 Paul reminds the Christian community in Thessalonika to live the Christian life of love for all people.

Luke 21:25-28.34-36 Jesus warns of troubled times ahead, with signs in the sky and great agony. His followers must be alert and ready to face these happenings but can be confident of their liberation.

"SAY THE WORD" Second Semester dates have been set. Men of the parish who wish to join this popular men's prayer breakfast group should contact Deacon Robert in the church office. Meetings will begin January 7th and meet at 6:30 am on Thursdays until March 11th.

DEDICATION & BLESSING. You are invited to the dedication of the new Catholic Charities campus located at 2450 North Harvard (southwest corner of Harvard & Apache), Monday, December 7th. Activities begin at 1:30 pm. No RSVP needed. There will be the dedication of the campus, blessing of buildings and programs, unveiling of a new sculpture, open house with refreshments, and tours of the campus available until 6:00 pm.

WOMEN OF THE MADALENE ANNOUNCEMENTS

General Meeting Tuesday, Dec. 1, at 7:00 pm. Nancy Lassiter will provide information regarding Gabriel Project. It's also a Christmas social with cookie exchange. Bring 5 dozen homemade cookies, all one kind, and package 4 dozen in baggies - 4 to a bag. The extra one dozen will be for 'sampling'. During the exchange, you can sample and select from cookies brought by others and return home with 12 baggies of different kinds of cookies. Freeze some for the holidays, use some for gifts, or simply enjoy them with your family. You may bring fewer cookies and still participate. You can take home the same number you bring for the exchange.

PRE-K
THROUGH 5TH
