There is a feeling of expectancy in the air today. We are drawing closer to our celebrations of the coming of Christ!

Zephaniah 3:14-18 A day of festival is coming and we have every reason to rejoice.

Philippians 4:4-7 God's peace is ours and it makes us happy.

Luke 3:10-18 John's baptism is only the beginning. Jesus will bring everything to fulfillment.

Letter to the Parish: Since my birthday has lasted all year long and since I've been gifted and re-gifted during my celebration time, I am asking you to delete my name from any list it might be on—I think you'll agree "enough is enough." Again, thank you for your many kindnesses to me and remember... "no more gifts." - Sister M. Pierre

Life of an everyday Catholic during Advent.

Advent is always a season that begins with excitement and possibly some anxiety. We are excited to celebrate this season of beginnings ~ beginning of Christianity when God became man on earth, beginning of new life in Christ with his Second Coming.

The anxiety can be two-fold: dread of the oncoming frenzy of commercialism the holidays bring, and dread of the realization that in our preparations for Christmas, we might find we have ignored preparing to receive Christ in our hearts and homes.

Join us this Wednesday evening at 5:40 for some beautiful, calming, singable Advent music, then Mass, then a nice meal shared with other parishioners.

Make daily Mass a priority these next few days before Christmas. Come to Confession one of the next 2 Saturdays from 3-5pm.

Say an Advent prayer before your evening meal.

Christmas Music

Madalene Choir and guest string quartet are rehearsing special music for Christmas Eve beginning at 9:20 pm. If you are planning to attend the 10pm Mass on Christmas Eve, plan to arrive by 9:15 to find a good seat and to enjoy this Christmas musical celebration.
